There was another alarm of fire, Saturday night. It was in the old store house on North Locust street, and was caused by a defective fuse, fortunately the fire was discovered and quenched in its incipient stage. Very little was destroyed.

Gallatin Missourians: Miss Sallie Brown has returned to this place and will make it her home again.

Butcher—Your lamb are the finest I have seen this spring.

Well they ought to be fine, I give them as much as they want to eat, and keep them in good condition by an occasional dose of Day's Horse and Cattle Powder.

—Charlie Boyd, aged 14, son of J. N. Boyd, Esq., has sent to the Globe Democrat several correct solutions of chess problems appearing in the chess column of that paper.

—Messrs. P. H. Minor and Henry Bushnell, of this county, have been drawn as grand and petit jurors respectively, for the May term of the U. S. Court at Kansas City.

—Messrs. C. A. Adams & Son, of this county, have purchased the creamery at Browning, Linn county, Mo. They are now running both that creamery and the one they own in this county.

—Last Saturday the Democratic county committee nominated W. A. Henderson for school commissioner and he has taken a month's "lay off" from his duties at Gentry, Stevens & Bots'.

—I have a small lot of well selected piece goods. I still keep samples representing $10,000 to select from. I will give satisfaction. Call on me.

T. C. HOGAN, Tailor.

—Dawn Clippert: Mr. Daniel W. Williams, residing two and a quarter miles east of town, has sold his farm to Mr. W. E. Davis, consideration $5,000.

—Mrs. Rosa Swarts and son David, left, Friday morning, for Denison, Texas, where they went to attend the wedding of Mrs. Swarts' daughter, Miss Carrie, who is to be united in marriage at that place, to Mr. Maurice S. Levy, on Wednesday evening, March 11.

—Avalon Aurora: Prof. Kapp was called suddenly to Birmingham, Ala., last Saturday, on receiving a telegram announcing the illness of W. C. Kapp. Mr. Long, an efficient man, has charge of the Professor's commercial classes.

—Trenton Republican: J. C. Harry is circulating a subscription for the purpose of raising money for the purpose of seeding the lakes of Grundy county with all fish.

—Trenton Republican: Mr. W. N. (Noble) Lane, of Ludlow, was in town, today, on business. He made, today, the final settlement on the 800 acre Hart farm which he purchased a short time since. The farm is located on the Lindley road a half-mile east of the Rural Dale orchard, and is undoubtedly one of the finest pieces of land in the county. Mr. Lane will move on to the farm in a few weeks.

—Tuesday, Mr. H. C. Clem, while ascending from his store to the room above by means of a rope, lost his hold and fell to the floor, striking on his head and shoulders. The shock rendered him insensible for a few moments. Dr. Gordon was called immediately. His injuries are not considered serious, though he may be unable for work for some time.

—In a report of the proceedings of the committee on agriculture, at Jefferson City, last week, we find the following: Mr. Donovan wanted to know what became of the graduates of said agricultural college, and if they ever became farmers. Prof. Sanborn replied that they didn't keep track of them after they left college, but presumed that they became farmers. Mr. Donovan said that he never saw one of our graduates of agricultural college, and that he went home and went to keeping saloon.

—Win. Barr & Co., retail dry goods dealers of St. Louis, have, it is said, paid as much as $11,000 for advertising in the short space of two weeks, this winter. Business has been exceedingly dull all over the country, but Barr & Co. seem to know that when they are both to spend money, their needs must be placed before them through advertisements, and the money brought from their pockets by extra inducements.

—The store building on the southeast corner of the square, lately occupied by the dry goods establishment of S. Hanner, is being fitted up in nice style, and will be opened as a hardware store about the 15th of this month by Messrs. Robert Stewart, of this city, Ross, Lauderdale, Jr., and Richard Hargrave, of Jackson township. Mr. Stewart has had ample experience in the hardware business, and the firm, though composed of young men, will have good solid "backing."

—The human structure is wonderful in mechanism. Each organ has its allotted part to perform, and none is more important than that for which the kidneys are designed. It is therefore, imperative that these should be kept in perfect health, and then should be jealously guarded against the encroachments of disease. George Kelly, of Jersey City, writes: "Dr. Stevens gave me Misher's Herb Bitters, while I was under his treatment for gravel, and has told me to take it."

The School Commission—R. R. Dixon asked to Make the Race.

The following petition is being un-animously signed by members of all parties.

—Ron. R. Dixon, Sr.—We, the undersigned, a portion of your fellow-citizens of our county, being deeply interested in the good of the cause of education; and believing that our excellent system of public schools should be maintained in all its vigor, and feeling that no part in school matters and elections, would ask you to become a candidate without regard to party or politics, for the office of county school commissioner. It is an office of the first importance and upon the proper discharge of the duties of that office depends much good to our schools, and we have confidence in your character, abilities and experience as an educator, and that you would discharge the duties of the office with credit to yourself and fidelity to the public good.

—C. J. Dixon, Esq., of Chillicothe, Mo.
